

The Fact Remains

No amount of misrepresentation by the peddlers of alum baking powders, no juggling with chemicals, or pretended analysis, or cooked-up certificates, or falsehoods of any kind, can change the fact that has been found by the official examinations to be of the highest leavening efficiency, free from alum, and of absolute purity and wholesomeness.

Royal Baking Powder is indispensable for making finest and most economical food.

LOCAL WOMEN AGREE WITH STAGE BEAUTIES

Of all women in the world, probably those on the stage are most particular about their personal appearance, and especially in the care of the hair; and when such leading stage beauties as Ethel Barrymore, Elsie Ferguson, Natalie Alt, Louise Dresser, Rose Cogan, Laurette Taylor and many others are so enthusiastic about Harmony Hair Beautifier as to write in praise of it, that is certainly evidence that it does just what they say it does—that it, beautifies the hair. There are many women right in this town, and men, too, who regard it as indispensable, because it makes the hair glossier and more silky, easier to dress and make stay in place. Sprinkle a little on your hair each time before brushing it. Contains no oil, will not change color of hair, nor darken gray hair.

To keep hair and scalp dandruff-free and clean, use Harmony Shampoo. This pure liquid shampoo gives an instantaneous rich lather that immediately penetrates to every part of hair and scalp, insuring a quick, thorough cleansing. Washed off just as quickly, the entire operation takes on a few moments. Contains nothing to harm the hair; leaves no harshness or stickiness.

Both preparations come in odd-shaped, very ornamental bottles, with sprinkler tops. Harmony Hair Beautifier, $1.00. Harmony Shampoo, 50c. Both guaranteed to satisfy you in every way, or your money back. Sold only at the more than 7,000 Rexall Stores, and in this town only by—der. Heroes you have reached the destination to which all men arrive. But some of you lived long enough to see your work accomplished—your country's independence. This nation today thanks and praises you. But now let us turn our attention to the purpose of this occasion. We are assembled here for the purpose of celebrating George Washington's birthday. February the twenty-second, which is a national holiday. Today the anniversary of the birth of Washington is celebrated everywhere in this land. Today schools and stores are closed; laboring men stop if possible for the celebration of this day. I see your faces beaming forth with pride, praise and honor for Washington. In fact, each one who has a spark of patriotism feel like praising him today.

Washington you are dead but your deeds live on. In the American Revolution every other patriot and hero could have been replaced; but for your position you were the man. Your state and country placed its confidence in you; you let them know that it was not in vain. America regards you as one of the greatest men she ever knew.

The Americans are proud of you. Your name is cherished wherever it is heard. And the nation with the deepest sincerity thank you. The life of this great warrior statesman and man, has inspired youth to valiant deeds and right living, and will inspire them as long as the English language is read or spoken.

In the first place his example in military affairs was great. He could not be outtrunked in service and valor. He was careful of his men, this fact alone gives him honor.

He was a splendid general; whenever he was defeated in battle he found his mistake and heeded it.

In the holding of offices we should also take him as a model. As president he carefully weighed his decisions, but, his policy once settled, he pursued it with steadfastness and integrity, however great the opposition.

As an officer he was brave, enterprising and cautious.

Although he naturally had a quick temper, he kept splendid control of it. He had great courage and perseverance in the face of every discouragement. He had a code of morals and good manners which he followed closely. His manner was formal and dignified. His writings were accurate and neat. He was interested in educational institutions and gave freely to their support. It is said that the greatest of his qualities was a rugged manliness which gave him the respect and confidence of his enemies.

Friends by following his example, this generation will uphold the constitution. As our fathers conquered under his leadership, so we shall conquer under his political and constitutional principles. We ought to make him our beacon light, and adhere to his standard. We ought to uphold it even though we go through many trials.

And when thou'rt told of knight-hood's shield

And English battles won,

Look up, my friend, and breathe one word—

The name of Washington.

WASHINGTON'S EXAMPLE

THE DOWELL SCHOOL.

Friday, Feb. 20th, was a day to be remembered at Dowell school. The Lena school and the King school made us a visit. They came in sleds and had a most enjoyable trip. The Lena school brought their pianist and song books and we had some fine singing from them.

We had decided to have an arithmetic contest between the Dowell school and the visiting schools but as there were more large pupils in our school than in the visiting schools we thought it might not be fair. A pupil was selected from each of the visiting schools to choose up sides. They had the right to choose from any of the pupils present so that the schools were mixed up promiscuously; about seventy pupils in all took part in the contest which was very interesting. Ruth Kuntz of the King school made a most enviable record defeating no less than twelve opponents. Had there been a few more in the King school who possessed the remarkable rapidity and accuracy of this little girl I fear that a contest with the visiting schools could have resulted disastrously for us.

After a short recess during which the visitors were given a chance to look over the school and to see the work of the visitors, we resumed the contest. We were very fortunate in having a few more in the King school who possessed the remarkable rapidity and accuracy of this little girl I fear that a contest with the visiting schools could have resulted disastrously for us.
